

TASMANIAN INSTITUTE OF LAW ENFORCEMENT STUDIES

Rules of Engagement: policing alcohol- related violence in public places

Jenny Fleming

TRENDS

- a shift in enforcement focus from patron to premise
- a return to a more centralized approach to regulation
- more formal shift to working with, and through partnerships

TILES

STRATEGIES

- Front-line Strategies
- Monitoring and Regulation
- Partnerships

TILES

TILES

VIOLENT, DRUNK WOMEN

TILES

TILES

Front Line Strategies

- discretion
- cautions
- liquor infringement notices
- on-the-spot fines
- visible police presence
- sleep off at the watch-house
- arrest

Monitoring and Regulation

- police monitoring of licensed premises
 - operating within licensing conditions/relevant legislation and regulations
 - responsible serving of alcohol
- pseudo-drunk patron evaluation
- cctv
- visits/communication
- alcohol-linking databases

Partnerships

- Intra-organizational collaboration
- Accords
- Inter-agency collaboration
- Police/Liquor Licensing Authority
- Agency/Community Management Plans

TILES

TILES

Limits to the Possible

- Wicked Problem
- National Competition Policy
- Political Short-termism

Who can do what?

- Police are but the visible response
- Police management
- State governments
- Federal government

TILES