

The program overview below is provisional and will be updated as planning proceeds. Please check this page regularly.

Tuesday 29 November 2016

Hotel Grand Chancellor

0800-0900	PECRC Registration   Chancellor 6, Hotel Grand Chancellor
0900-1700	PECRC 2016   Chancellor 6 (click here for program)
1300-1600	Committee Meeting   Chancellor 5, Hotel Grand Chancellor
1600	ANZSOC Conference Registration & Speakers Prep Room Open   Mezzanine, Hotel Grand Chancellor
1800-2000	Welcome Drinks   Mezzanine, Hotel Grand Chancellor (book during registration)
1945	PECRC Dinner   La Porchetta Salamanca (at own expense, indicate interest during PECRC registration)

Wednesday 30 November 2016

Hotel Grand Chancellor

0730	ANZSOC Registration & Speakers Prep Room Open   Mezzanine, Hotel Grand Chancellor
	OPENING PLENARY   FEDERATION BALLROOM Chair: Professor Rob White
0900-1030	Welcome By Convenor – Professor Rob White, University of Tasmania Welcome to Country – Alison Overeem (Smith), Palawa Community member, working in Community Development with the ATSI community for Leprena (UAICC National) Official Opening – Her Excellency, Professor the Honourable Kate Warner, AM, Governor of Tasmania Opening Address – Dr Vanessa Goodwin, Attorney-General, Minister for Justice, Minister for Corrections, Minister for the Arts, Leader of the Government in the Legislative Council President’s Welcome – Professor Rick Sarre, Professor of Law at the University of South Australia, outgoing President of ANZSOC
1030-1100	Morning Tea   Mezzanine
	PLENARY   FEDERATION BALLROOM Chair: Professor Rob White
1100-1200	ANZSOC Awards New Zealand Student Award for Best Abstract – Presented by Loene Howes Australian Student Award for Best Abstract – Presented by Loene Howes Allan van Zyl Memorial Prize – Presented by Rick Sarre <hr/> Keynote Speaker: Professor Yvonne Jewkes

	Research Professor in Criminology, School of Applied Social Science, University of Brighton No Brave New World: Limiting prisoners' horizons in the name of public acceptability
1200-1300	Lunch   Mezzanine
1200-1250	Book Launch: Australian Violence, Crime, Criminal Justice and Beyond   HARBOUR VIEW 1 Edited by Julie Stubbs and Stephen Tomsen
1300-1350	CONCURRENT SESSION A

CULTURAL CRIMINOLOGY Chair: Janet Chan	VULNERABLE PEOPLE &amp; HUMAN RIGHTS Chair: Shilan Caman	CRIME PREVENTION Chair: Li Eriksson	FORENSIC CRIMINOLOGY Chair: Lionel Grossrieder
FEDERATION BALLROOM	GRAND BALLROOM 1	HARBOUR VIEW 1	CHANCELLOR 4
Making sense of big data for security Janet Chan	What does feminism have to say about domestic violence death reviews? Elizabeth Sheehy	School violence and other school risk factors for youth offending in Vietnam – a life history approach Toan Quang Le	The use of DNA evidence in cross-border investigations: From crisis to confidence Jessica Ritchie
The working culture of covert policing Benjamin Goold	Non-fatal strangulation: Considering the case for an overlapping offence Zoe Prebble	Assessing the risk of re-offending in adults: GRAM 2 Efty Stavrou	Wastewater analysis, forensic science and the changing field of drug monitoring Jeremy Prichard
	Intimate partner homicide across time and gender: A Swedish register-based study on all homicides between 1990 and 2013 Shilan Caman	Intimate partner homicide-suicide in Australia and Canada: A cross-country comparison Li Eriksson	From traces to knowledge: Toward Computational Forensic Criminology? Lionel Grossrieder
COURTS &amp; SENTENCING Chair: Daye Gang	CORRECTIONS &amp; PENOLOGY Chair: Cheneal Puljevic	CYBER CRIME Chair: David Wall	CRIME &amp; MEDIA Chair: Hannah Thurston
GRAND BALLROOM 2	GRAND BALLROOM 3	HARBOUR VIEW 2	CHANCELLOR 6
New horizons for victims of intimate partner violence offences in Indigenous sentencing courts Elena Marchetti	Carl Williams v the state of Victoria: Duty of care Peter Norden	Digital harassment and abuse: Experiences of sexuality and gender-diverse adults Anastasia Powell, Adrian Scott, Nicola Henry

A critical discourse analysis of New Zealand sentencing decisions in cases where women kill in the context of intimate partner abuse Marita Leask	Female IRA ex-combatants: Political protest and the prison experience Azrini Wahidin	Gamergate and the subpolitics of online abuse Michael Salter	Criminal justice students as producers and consumers of crime fiction television Kerry Wimshurst
A review of imprisonment terms handed down by the County Court of Victoria Daye Gang	Nicotine replacement therapy use among former prisoners Cheneal Puljevic	Researching policing in a digital and networked age David Wall	The Texan punishment identity: Stories of execution and incarceration in Lone Star Museums Hannah Thurston

1350-1400	Changeover Break
1400-1450	CONCURRENT SESSION B

INTELLIGENCE & ORGANISED CRIME Chair: Nicholas Gilmour	VULNERABLE PEOPLE & HUMAN RIGHTS Chair: Julie-Anne Toohey	CRIME PREVENTION Chair: Tim Prenzler	FORENSIC CRIMINOLOGY Chair: Stuart Ross	TEACHING CRIMINOLOGY Chair: Rick Sarre
FEDERATION BALLROOM	GRAND BALLROOM 1	HARBOUR VIEW 1	CHANCELLOR 4	CHANCELLOR 5
Intelligence: Are existing intelligence arrangements hampering Australia's law enforcement and security efforts to fight crime and terrorism? Phil Kowalick	Feeling human, feeling criminalised: Writing about feelings in criminology Tallace Bissett	Gun crime: Offender perspectives Mark Halsey, Andrew Goldsmith, David Bright	Mapping out the key stages of cyberstalking investigations in Australia Brianna O'Shea	How criminology students see crime? From « naive representations » to « reasoned thinking » by deconstructing criminology through the lens of TV shows Lionel Grossrieder
Is there a plan for organised crime policy in Queensland? Mark Lauchs	Crime and refugees: The case of Sudanese Australians Garry Coventry	Utilizing crime script analysis to identify modus operandi of transnational drug trafficking cases from Vietnam to Australia Hai Thanh Luong	Seven deadly sins: The development of a qualitative understanding of homicide offender motive Belinda Parker	Critical thinking in criminology: Critical reflections on learning and teaching Loene Howes
An ethical framework for managing social media intelligence Nicholas Gilmour	IQ Sub 70: Interactions with the criminal justice system of female offenders and ex-offenders with an intellectual disability Julie-Anne Toohey	Situational prevention of domestic violence: A review of security-based programs Tim Prenzler	Mobile and web technologies for correctional programs: Theoretical and policy challenges Stuart Ross	Why criminologists should study theology Rick Sarre
PANEL Chair: Ruth McCausland	CORRECTIONS & PENOLOGY Chair: Eve Mullins	GREEN CRIMINOLOGY Chair: Fiona Haines	CRIME & MEDIA Chair: Katrina Clifford

GRAND BALLROOM 2	GRAND BALLROOM 3	HARBOUR VIEW 2	CHANCELLOR 6
Diversion and 'what works' in post-release: Improving the evidence Ruth McCausland, Mindy Sotiri, Alison Churchill	Religious diversity in residential faith-based and character-based prison program Abigail Wild	The carbon footprint of crime and crime prevention – a green opportunity? Helen Skudder	A woman's words: what are they worth? Rape in New Zealand newspapers (1975-2015) Ange Barton
	Motivation and readiness to change: A comparison of clients in religion-based and prison-based drug treatment programs in Taiwan Doris Chu	State-corporate mining: The Carmichael case Olivia Salama	Contemporary risk communication and experiential knowledge John Gaffey
	Exploring how effective working relationships are constructed in talk in a groupwork programme to address sexual offending Eve Mullins	Taming business? A critical analysis of AGL's decision to divest from coal seam gas Fiona Haines	What it means to 'do' media criminology Katrina Clifford

1450-1515	Afternoon Tea   Mezzanine
1515-1600	CONCURRENT SESSION C

POLICING Chair: Frank Ferdik	VULNERABLE PEOPLE & HUMAN RIGHTS Chair: Samantha Lyneham	CYBER CRIME Chair: Lennon Chang	FORENSIC CRIMINOLOGY Chair: Roberta Julian
FEDERATION BALLROOM	GRAND BALLROOM 1	HARBOUR VIEW 1	CHANCELLOR 4
Promoting a culture of fairness: Police training, procedural justice and compliance Elise Sargeant	Current sex crimes policies: Delivering sanity to the masses Alissa Ackerman	Examining legal and policy frameworks regarding online child exploitation materials Julianne Webster	A path forward for bite-mark analysis: A response to the 2009 National Academy of Science Report Mithun Rajshekar
Exploring police use of force decision-making Kelly Hine	Consent in sexual assault law: The 2007 NSW reforms Gail Mason	The determinants of the utility of victims' online routine activities as risk factors for cyber abuse: A mixed method analysis Zarina Vakhitova	The effectiveness of forensic science in the criminal justice system: Measuring the impact of forensic evidence on police investigations & court trials Peter Woodman

Exploring determinants of citizen satisfaction levels with the police: The role of strain Frank Ferdik	When saying no is not an option: Forced marriage in Australia and New Zealand Samantha Lyneham	Citizen co-production of cyber security: Self-help, vigilantes, and cybercrime Lennon Chang	The economics and politics of forensic science: A critical reflection on measurement and meaning-making in the audit society Roberta Julian
COURTS &amp; SENTENCING Chair: Armin Alimardani	CORRECTIONS &amp; PENOLOGY Chair: Marietta Martinovic	INNOVATIVE JUSTICE &amp; DESISTANCE Chair: Claire Seppings	CRIME &amp; MEDIA Chair:
GRAND BALLROOM 2	GRAND BALLROOM 3	HARBOUR VIEW 2	CHANCELLOR 6
Farce and illusory theatres of criminal justice Ian Warren, Daniel Sormaz	Prison graffiti: A historical analysis of life in Boggo Road Gaol Belinda Mulcahy	Supporting transitions to desistance and (re)integration: Recognising reintegrative ritual in everyday practices Diana Johns	The media representations of the police during Hong Kong Occupy movement Wayne W. L. Chan
Business as usual? How magistrates make bail decisions in Tasmania Max Travers	Research methods and experiences of a prison museum thesis James Rodgers	Desistance from sexual offending: Life narratives of recidivism and redemption Danielle Harris	Self-produced media and fantasy crime Hadeel Al-losi
Explaining crime in criminal proceedings: Towards a new approach Armin Alimardani	Transcending the prison walls: The outcomes of the inaugural Australian Inside Out Prison Exchange Program Marietta Martinovic, Dr Marg Liddell	Learning from former prisoners who have gone straight makes sense Claire Seppings

1600-1610	Changeover Break
1610-1700	CONCURRENT SESSION D

POLICE LEGITIMACY Chair: Oanh Nguyen	VULNERABLE PEOPLE &amp; HUMAN RIGHTS Chair: Victor Minichiello	CRIME PREVENTION Chair: Daniel Birks	RESTORATIVE JUSTICE – SEXUAL CRIMES Chair: John Whitehead	POLICE INVESTIGATIONS Chair: Willem de Lint
FEDERATION BALLROOM	GRAND BALLROOM 1	HARBOUR VIEW 1	CHANCELLOR 4	CHANCELLOR 5
Exploring police legitimacy Lorenzo M. Boyd	“Stop calling her a sex worker!” Decriminalisation, stigma and discourses of respectability	How well do community prevention partnerships function? The case of the Australian Government’s Communities for Children partnerships	Findings from two Restorative Justice intervention sessions with men convicted of sexual offenses	High-stakes police investigative interviews and intelligence gathering contexts: Practitioners’ perceptions of interpreter impact on rapport development

	Lynzi Armstrong	Ross Homel	Alissa Ackerman	Loene Howes
Police deviance, procedural (in)justice and cynicism towards the law in Nigeria Oluwagbenga Michael Akinlabi	A queer criminal career Nicole L. Asquith, Angela Dwyer	Reform and uncertainty: Implications of funding reforms on community crime prevention Garner Clancey	Responding to sexual violence in Fiji: Colonial law and customary justice John Whitehead	Insights into the evaluation of the investigative contribution of forensic science Sonja Bitzer
The role of police in identifying and assisting victims of human trafficking for sexual exploitation: A perspective of Vietnam Oanh Nguyen	Website Launch: About Male Escorting Victor Minichiello, John Scott, Cameron Cox	The security hypothesis and the vehicle crime drop in England and Wales Daniel Birks		Blind spot: 9/11 in criminology Willem de Lint
SENTENCING Chair: Clare Farmer	CORRECTIONS &amp; PENOLOGY Chair: Sitthana Theerathitwong	INNOVATIVE JUSTICE &amp; DESISTANCE Chair: John Murphy	CYBER CRIME Chair: David Lacey
GRAND BALLROOM 2	GRAND BALLROOM 3	HARBOUR VIEW 2	CHANCELLOR 6
The sentencing of children and youth for murder in New Zealand Nessa Lynch	Electronic monitoring in Scotland: Penological purposes, practices and professional ideologies in a season of change Hannah Graham	A qualitative and quantitative study on harm reduction approaches in Vietnam Tuan Dung Truong	Cybercrime: Exploring domain name crime Tony Krone
Sentencing at a distance: Video links from prison Carolyn Mckay	What really works? A comparison of post-release service delivery models in Melbourne and New York City Sitthana Theerathitwong	A comparison of young people's views in Japan and Scotland on what works to reduce offending Monica Barry	Inside out: Comparing cybercrimes committed by 'insiders' and 'outsiders' Alice Hutchings
Inconsistency in sentencing outcomes in the Magistrates' Court of Victoria: Implications for the instinctive synthesis Clare Farmer		Getting to the heart of the matter: Understanding how families maintain relationships with a loved one in detention and potential for communicating by audio visual link John Murphy, Kate Goodwin	iTunes vouchers don't equal government tax debt repayment: Scam detection and prevention messaging success David Lacey, Cassandra Cross

1700	Sessions End
1740	Coaches Depart Hotel Grand Chancellor (Campbell St) for Government House (invitations essential)
1800-1900	Government House Reception   Government House
1900	Coaches Depart Government House to return delegates to Hotel Grand Chancellor

Thursday 1 December 2016

Hotel Grand Chancellor

0800	ANZSOC Registration & Speakers Prep Room Open   Mezzanine, Hotel Grand Chancellor
0900-1030	SUB-PLENARY PANELS

Indigenous Criminology Chair: Professor Rob White	Horizon Policing Chair: Associate Professor Angela Dwyer	Historical & Convict Criminology Chair: Dr Jeremy Prichard
GRAND BALLROOM 1	GRAND BALLROOM 2	GRAND BALLROOM 3
The elements of Indigenous criminology Professor Chris Cunneen	Engaging Muslim communities to tackle radicalisation and violent extremism: What does the evidence say and what can police do? Associate Professor Adrian Cherney	Motherhood under sentence Emeritus Professor Lucy Frost
Doing ethical Indigenous criminology Professor Maggie Walter	Deciphering crime systems through forensic science: The emergence of interdisciplinary approaches Professor Claude Roux	Convict transportation and life course offending in the 19th century Professor Hamish Maxwell Stuart
Discussion	Selling research to police – the UK agenda Professor Jenny Fleming	Fear, panic and persecution: The Argus and Victorian anti-convict legislation in the 1850s Associate Professor Stefan Petrow
	Discussion	Discussion

1030-1100	Morning Tea   Mezzanine
	PLENARY   FEDERATION BALLROOM Chair: Professor Rob White
1100-1200	ANZSOC Awards Adam Sutton Crime Prevention Award – Presented by Fiona Haines New Scholar Prize – Presented by Hilde Tubex
	Keynote Speaker: Koichi Hamai Professor of the Law School and the research director of the Corrections and Rehabilitation Center at Ryukoku University in Kyoto, Japan Anatomy of the myth of Japan, the safest country in the world; how has Japan maintained a low crime rate?

1200-1330	Lunch   Mezzanine
1220-1320	ANZSOC AGM   Federation Ballroom
1330-1420	CONCURRENT SESSION E

SOUTHERN CRIMINOLOGY Chair: Ian Warren	VULNERABLE PEOPLE & HUMAN RIGHTS Chair: James Petty	WOMEN AS VICTIMS Chair: Samara McPhedran	TEACHING & PUBLISHING CRIMINOLOGY Chair: Antje Deckert
FEDERATION BALLROOM	GRAND BALLROOM 1	HARBOUR VIEW 1	CHANCELLOR 4
The sociology of punishment from below: Rethinking mass incarceration through the global-south David Fonseca	Police Officers understand about human rights, don't they? Alan Beckley	The narratives of trafficked female migrants in Government Protection Shelter Home 5 – exploration of the rescue process and protective custody of trafficked women Haezreena Begum Abdul Hamid	The Australian Institute of Criminology and public sector criminological research Russell Smith
Harm reduction and the ethics of drug use in the global south Margaret Pereira, John Scott	The operation of the consorting law in NSW in its first 3 years and recommendations for refining its scope Kate McDonald	Why is objectification so objectionable? Jan Jordan	Doesn't matter if you're black or white: Othering of First Nation peoples in mainstream criminology journals Antje Deckert
Global policing, surveillance and intelligence: New Zealand, The United States and Kim Dotcom Ian Warren	Managing urban imagery: homelessness and aesthetic regulation James Petty	A methodological critique of victim-focussed studies of intimate partner femicide Samara McPhedran
BEFORE WE GET TO COURT Chair: Lauren Vogel	CORRECTIONS & PENOLOGY Chair: Cassandra Thoars	IMMIGRATION & HUMAN RIGHTS Chair: Lorena Rivas	INNOVATIVE DATA & METHODOLOGY Chair: Susan Goldsmid
GRAND BALLROOM 2	GRAND BALLROOM 3	HARBOUR VIEW 2	CHANCELLOR 6
Plea negotiations: Shining light on the negotiated guilty plea process in Victoria Arie Freiberg, Asher Flynn	Crime and punishment in six Australian jurisdictions Hilde Tubex	Stimulating deportation: Crimmigration and foreign national prisoners in the Netherlands Jelmer Brouwer	The rise of the evidence-based policing and 'What Works' movement in the UK: What are the future implications for policing research? Karen Lumsden
The guilty plea and the transformation of the criminal trial Lisa Durnian	Corporate 'illegalism', monetized (in) justice and the financialization of economy and society Russell Hogg	Interpreting the detention and deportation of New Zealanders Elizabeth Stanley	Predicting the Australian illicit drug market Susan Goldsmid
Criminal histories: Co-offending in property crime in Australia, 1861-1961 Lauren Vogel	Engagement in education: The panacea for juvenile recidivism? Cassandra Thoars	Gender and risk: An empirical examination of the experiences of women held in long-term immigration detention in Australia Lorena Rivas

1420-1430	Changeover Break
1430-1520	CONCURRENT SESSION F

POLICING – ILLICIT DRUGS & ALCOHOL Chair: Clare Farmer	VULNERABLE PEOPLE & HUMAN RIGHTS Chair: Joe Yick	CRIME PREVENTION Chair: Joe Clare	VICTIMS & OFFENDERS Chair: Tamera Jenkins
FEDERATION BALLROOM	GRAND BALLROOM 1	HARBOUR VIEW 1	CHANELLOR 4
Can police deter drug use and supply at music festivals? An assessment of the deterrent effects of Australian street-level drug law enforcement Caitlin Hughes	Children’s rights and juvenile justice in Australia and the United Kingdom Chris Cunneen	Violent offending, nonviolent offending, and delinquent behavior: Examining the psychosocial effects of Hong Kong male and female adolescents Heng Choon Chan	Street harassment victims’ justice needs and desired justice responses Bianca Fileborn
The proliferation of patron banning in Australia; implications for the control of alcohol-related disorder in the night-time economy Clare Farmer	Young people with complex needs in the youth justice system Sophie Russell	‘What did the judge say?’ Judicial commentary on the wrongfulness of using child exploitation material Charlotte Hunn	An unthinkable crime: Parents who kill Willow Bryant
	An analysis of the association between criminal behaviour and experience of maltreatment as a child Joe Yick	Rational, motivated students and suitable units: Detecting suspected ghost-writing of unsupervised written assignments Joe Clare	Perceptions of forgiveness for victims and offenders: Somewhere between “forgiveness frees me” and “I don’t expect their forgiveness” Tamera Jenkins
COURTS & SENTENCING – SUBSTANCE USE Chair: Luke McNamara	CORRECTIONS & PENOLOGY Chair: Lorana Bartels	INSTITUTIONAL ABUSE Chair: Peter Norden	INDIGENOUS CRIMINOLOGY Chair: Silke Meyer
GRAND BALLROOM 2	GRAND BALLROOM 3	HARBOUR VIEW 2	CHANCELLOR 6
Zero tolerance and drug driving laws Julia Quilter	“Gaal is my impartja”: Causes and consequences of intergenerational incarceration Mark Halsey	‘A few bad apples’ v ‘my culture made me do it’? Comparing narratives of cultural determinism in institutional and racialised gendered violence Selda Dagistanli	Crossing borders, setting boundaries: Findings from an evaluation of the cross border Indigenous family violence program Matthew Willis, Sarah Holcombe
Evidence of intoxication in Australian criminal courts: A complex variable with multiple effects Luke McNamara	“There was no-one else”: Reflections of family members caring for children of incarcerated parents Catherine Flynn	Justice for all, or justice – depending on the status of the offender? Sharyn Jenkins	Building an effective throughcare approach for Aboriginal offenders in Australia Hilde Tubex
Responding to Don Dale: Coming to terms with our irresponsibility as legal practitioners for young people’s experience in detention centres	How does the Australian public view parole? Results from a national survey Lorana Bartels, Adrian Cherney, Arie Freiberg	Locked In Tasmania’s Guatanamo Peter Norden	Indigenous women’s experiences of domestic and family violence and its impact on relocation, housing stability and parenting

Mary Spiers Williams			Silke Meyer
----------------------	--	--	-------------

1520-1545	Afternoon Tea   Mezzanine
1545-1630	CONCURRENT SESSION G

COMMUNITY POLICING Chair: Angela Dwyer	VULNERABLE PEOPLE & HUMAN RIGHTS Chair: Angkasa Angkasa	SURVEILLANCE Chair: Monique Mann	RESTORATIVE JUSTICE CONFERENCING Chair: Dennis Sing-wing Wong
FEDERATION BALLROOM	GRAND BALLROOM 1	HARBOUR VIEW 1	CHANCELLOR 4
Challenges of policing very remote communities Philip Stenning, Janet Ransley	Building relationships with 'difficult-to-engage' young people: Changing practice, reducing offending Marg Liddell, Diana Johns	Surveillance, Accountability and Fairness: Police arrestees' experience and opinions of police body-worn cameras in Australia Emmeline Taylor, Murray Lee	Language competence and restorative justice conference processes Hennessey Hayes
Using LGBTI police liaison services: Survey results with LGBTI people in three Australian states Chris Bond	Understanding the link between discrimination and juvenile delinquency among Chinese migrant children Spencer Li	'You might not be who you say you are, but luckily I've got your picture already': Surveillance disrupting due process Caitlin Overington	Youth Justice Conferencing for youth misuse of fire: The influence of firefighters on conference process, outcomes, and impact Kamarah Pooley
What stops LGBTI people seeking support from LGBTI police liaison officers? Results from interviews with LGBTI people and liaison officers Angela Dwyer	Prisonization: Causative factors and its impact in rehabilitating accidental offenders in Indonesia Angkasa Angkasa	Global surveillance and transnational policing Monique Mann	Victim-offender mediation in Taiwan and mainland China: Current practices and challenges Dennis Sing-wing Wong
NEW & OLD CONSTRUCTS OF JUSTICE Chair: Alice Mills	CORRECTIONS & PENOLOGY Chair: Tracey Woolrych	INSTITUTIONAL ABUSE Chair: Emma Colvin	GREEN CRIMINOLOGY Chair: Mark Hamilton
GRAND BALLROOM 2	GRAND BALLROOM 3	HARBOUR VIEW 2	CHANCELLOR 6
Narratives of consent in rape trials in Victoria Rachael Burgin	The clothes maketh the man: Uniforms, interaction and agency in prisons Anna Eriksson	The false, but persistent, notion of benefit of clergy Tony Krone	The consumption of endangered wildlife in China: How can I trust my food? Rebecca W.Y. Wong
Abolishing defensive homicide: A step towards populist punitivism at the expense of mentally impaired offenders Madeleine Ulbrick	Compromised power, dialogical legitimacy, and negotiated order in a Ukrainian prison Anton Symkovych	Child-abuse preventive practices of Tasmanian Anglican clergy: A situational crime prevention analysis Michael Andre Guerzoni	Dolphin 'troubles' in New Zealand Sarah Wright Monod
Redefining legal space? The tikanga of nga Koti Rangatahi	Measuring empathy: Arguments for the development of multiple tests of empathy	Absconding from care: The criminalisation of missing children	Restorative justice conferencing: Furthering the democratisation of environmental and planning

Stella Black, Alice Mills, Katey Thom	Tracey Woolrych	Emma Colvin	dispute resolution in New South Wales, Australia Mark Hamilton
---------------------------------------	-----------------	-------------	---

1630-1640	Changeover Break
1640-1745	CONCURRENT SESSION H

POLICING Chair: Lena Zhong	VULNERABLE PEOPLE &amp; HUMAN RIGHTS Chair: John Scott	VICTIMOLOGY Chair: Rhiannon Davies	CYBER CRIME Chair: Robert Fleet
FEDERATION BALLROOM	GRAND BALLROOM 1	CHANCELLOR 6	CHANCELLOR 4
Governing public space: The use of legal and non-legal mechanisms of exclusion in Melbourne and Frankston Nicola Helps	Help-seeking during systematic and chronic abuse: Survivor and professional perspectives Michael Salter	The role of victims in parole board decisions Katherine McLachlan	Can criminological theory explain cyber-bullying? A test of general strain theory and the general theory of crime Andrew McGrath
Triad involvement in the Umbrella Movement: Extralegal service provider or hegemonic security agents Wing Lo	Roads to recovery: Rebuilding the response to violence against women post Hurricane Katrina Rachel Loney-Howes	"I wasn't expecting anything anymore": The challenges of reporting online fraud in Australia Cassandra Cross	Anonymity, attribution, apportionment sentencing the cyber criminal Patricia Anna Aloï
The Auxiliary Police Force in China Lena Zhong	Illicit drug supply and the construction of the self as an ethical subject John Scott	The experiences of whistleblowers after misconduct is reported Russell Smith	'Bye Felipe!': Resisting, displaying and rejecting harassment online Laura Vitis
Concludes 1730	Concludes 1730	Proactive versus reactive victims' rights legislation: Findings from victim interviews Rhiannon Davies	Internet spaceships are seriously organised business Robert Fleet
TERRORISM Chair: Susan Donkin	FAMILY VIOLENCE Chair: Romy Winter	BORDERS REGULATION &amp; STATE CRIME Chair: Rashaam Chowdhury
GRAND BALLROOM 2	GRAND BALLROOM 3	HARBOUR VIEW 2
Confessions of a moderate Muslim: Speaking truth in an era of representation Mohamad Tabbaa	Policing family violence: What do we know and where do we go? Christine Bond	Aviation security – unruly and antisocial passengers Susan Goldsmid
Public communication to stop terrorism: An examination of zero-sum counterterrorism assumptions Daren Fisher	Family violence that does not involve intimate partners: what do we know about it and how do we support victims Judy Putt	Using emerging technologies to regulate illegal fishing and forced labour in the Indo-Pacific Jade Lindley

Deradicalization program as a tool to combat terrorism in Indonesia: Problems and challenges Heru Susetyo, Fachri Bey	Aggravating or mitigating? The impact of alcohol involvement on family violence incident outcomes recorded by police Cleave McDonald, Melanie Millstead	Supply changes in Australia's ecstasy market: A re-emerging market? Matthew O'Reilly
The precautionary tale of Australia's amendments to the Terrorism Control Order Scheme Susan Donkin	Predictors for intimate partner violence: Risk or vulnerability? Romy Winter	Pushing back 'intruders': Bangladesh's Rohingya refugee policy and state crime Rashaam Chowdhury

1745	Sessions End
1900-2300	Conference Dinner   Harbour View 1, Hotel Grand Chancellor (optional function, book during registration) Live band entertainment: Detour  Presentation of the 2016 Distinguished Criminologist Awards   Rick Sarre All winners of the Distinguished Criminologist Award will be given their Fellow certificates, along with Peter Norden AO and Dr Russell Smith   Rick Sarre

Friday 2 December 2016

Hotel Grand Chancellor

0800	ANZSOC Registration & Speakers Prep Room Open   Mezzanine, Hotel Grand Chancellor
0900-1030	SUB PLENARY PANELS

Abuse in the Institutional Context Chair: Associate Professor Alissa R. Ackerman	Southern Criminology Chair: Professor Kerry Carrington	Guns and Violence Chair: Associate Professor Roberta Julian
GRAND BALLROOM 1	GRAND BALLROOM 2	GRAND BALLROOM 3
Child-safe, child-friendly organisations: Can sexual abuse be 'designed out'? Professor Stephen Smallbone	Theorising southern masculinities and violence Professor Kerry Carrington	Firearms studies, 20 years on: What have we learned about preventing gun violence Professor Peter Squires
Sentencing in the context of institutional child abuse Emeritus Professor Arie Freiberg	The four-ways of eco-criminology Professor Rob White	Talking to gun criminals: Preliminary reflections from an Australian study Professor Andrew Goldsmith
Silencing abuse in state institutions for children Dr Elizabeth Stanley	Southern penalties Professor Russell Hogg	Police firearms carriage: Are we safer? Are they safer? Professor Rick Sarre

Discussion	Discussion	Discussion
------------	------------	------------

1030-1100	Morning Tea   Mezzanine
	PLENARY   FEDERATION BALLROOM Chair: Professor Rob White
1100-1200	ANZSOC Awards The Allen Austin Bartholomew Award – Presented by Antje Deckert Student Paper Prize – Presented by Cassandra Cross  Keynote Speaker: Professor Sandra Walklate Eleanor Rathbone Chair of Sociology, Sociology, Social Policy and Criminology, University of Liverpool The (Criminological) War of the Worlds
1200-1300	CONCURRENT SESSION I

ROUND TABLE Chair: Alison Young	PANEL Chair: Sharon Pickering	PANEL Chair: Julie Stubbs	PANEL Chair: Nicole Asquith
FEDERATION BALLROOM	GRAND BALLROOM 2	HARBOUR VIEW 1	CHANCELLOR 4
Drift, design and transition: A roundtable on vulnerable groups and the spaces of criminal justice Alison Young, Rob White, Yvonne Jewkes	Beyond borders as risk Marie Segrave, Rebecca Powell, Kat Hadjimatheou, Sanja Milivojevic	Australian violence Julie Stubbs, Duncan Chappell, Ross Homel, Kerry Carrington, Russell Hogg, Jenny Bargaen	Vulnerability & policing Nicole Asquith, Michele Grossman, Angela Dwyer, Roberta Julian
PANEL Chair: Anastasia Powell	PANEL Chair: Sandra Walklate	PANEL Chair: Laura McDonald	PANEL Chair: Russell Smith
GRAND BALLROOM 1	GRAND BALLROOM 3	HARBOUR VIEW 2	CHANCELLOR 6
Sexual violence in the virtual sphere: sites of harm or justice? Bianca Fileborn, Nicola Henry, Rachel Loney-Howes, Tully O'Neill,	Family violence risk assessment in Australia Jude McCulloch, Marie Segrave, Jane Maree Maher	The court of the future: Technology in court Laura McDonald, Rick Sarre, David Tait	Out with the Old, In with the New? Contemporary scholars review articles from the early days of the Australian and New Zealand Journal of Criminology (50th Anniversary Special Panel) Russell Smith, Arie Freiberg, Fiona Dowsley, Don Weatherburn, Antonia Quadara

1300-1400	 Ice Cream Social   Mezzanine Proudly sponsored by ACJS
1415	Board ferry at Brooke St Pier for 1430 departure to MONA (book during registration)
	Self Guided Tour of MONA
1800	Return ferry departs MONA wharf for Hobart